

Machine Operator Job Description

Essential Functions:

- Ability to work independently in a fast-paced manufacturing environment and adhere to health and safety requirements.
- Ability to read and interpret manufacturing specifications or work instructions
- Monitors the production process and performs visual inspections and quality testing
- Ability to make timely decisions that affect Safety, Quality and Efficiency
- Ability to perform the essential functions of the job such as frequently lifting and moving 50 lb. packages while standing for extended periods, bending, squatting or kneeling
- Maintains proper housekeeping standards and performs operator maintenance
- Ability to learn technical processes to operate equipment and machinery
- Ability to achieve a forklift certification
- Maintain efficient production daily while setting up machines and packing out products for shipping
- Other duties as assigned

Required Qualifications:

- The candidate must be dependable, detail-oriented, and able to follow directions. Will need the ability to work well in a team environment, possess good eyesight, mathematical and mechanical skills, and be able to lift a minimum of 50lbs. The candidate must be willing to work weekends and overtime hours.
- Hours: Monday – Friday, 2nd Shift: 3pm-11:00pm or 3rd Shift: 11:00pm – 7:00am. These hours may vary due to overtime requirements. Some Saturdays may be required.